Dilip Buildcon Limited has informed the stock exchanges that it has emerged as the L-1 bidder for a large-scale contract issued by National Aluminium Company Limited (NALCO), a Government of India enterprise.

The contract covers the development and operation of the Pottangi Bauxite Mines along with an Overland Conveyor Corridor and associated facilities. The disclosure was made in compliance with SEBI's Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements.

Pottangi Mining Project and Contract Structure

According to the company's filing, the project includes Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) work during the first three years, covering the Overland Conveyor Corridor (OLCC), road infrastructure, a water intake facility, and mining and transportation.

This initial phase is expected to handle approximately 7 million tonnes for 3 years and is valued at ₹1,750 crore. The subsequent 22-year period will focus on mining operations involving 77 million tonnes at current mining charges of ₹423 per tonne, amounting to ₹3,250 crore. This brings the project's total value to ₹5,000 crore, excluding GST.

Key Terms and Additional Disclosures

As detailed in Annexure A of the disclosure, the contract is a domestic general contract awarded by NALCO. The total execution period spans 25 years. The company also confirmed that neither the promoter group nor related parties have any interest in the awarding entity, and the order does not fall under related-party transactions.

Furthermore, Dilip Buildcon stated that, in line with insider trading regulations, the trading window for designated persons will remain closed until 48 hours after the information becomes public.
